

Debbie M. Jordan May 20, 1957- March 24, 2022. Survived by her husband John and daughter Amanda Debbie was a very successful middle distance runner. She competed on the track in 800m & 1500m, as well as cross country and road races. Debbie was a passionate traveler with her husband and fellow Masters competitor John, and daughter Amanda. Deb and John managed to combine competition at many World Masters Championships with fantastic travel adventures around the world. The Endurance Queen was either hiking the trails of the Lower Mainland and beyond or putting in a hard distance workout.

Debbie was a vibrant and competitive member of the Masters community. No stranger to courage and hard work, Debbie fought with all she had these past 20 months staying positive with an amazing sense of humour and self-awareness. Debbie passed with the grace and dignity she embodied throughout her life. She is missed greatly by her family, intrepid relay team and the many lifelong friends she cultivated with her running and hiking adventures.
